

CPA's Artist Registry

Cleveland Public Art is now updating its Artist Registry and digital library. All artists, regardless of skills, discipline, or location, are encouraged to submit information. By completing this form and mailing the requested information to CPA, you will receive calls for artists issued by CPA. Your images may be shown to outside commissioning agencies for other projects. You may update your files periodically by sending new information to CPA. Submitted materials will not be returned. Information in the registry will not be shared with commercial vendors.
